Deceptive counseling is common. Healing is possible.

Jason throws a mean fast ball, Gracie doesn't know a stranger and Jen's the bookish one. Brian and Lisa love their kids, but they wonder about the one that came along when Lisa was sick and Brian lost his job. They believed the counselor who said there was no other option and the doctor who said it was just a blob of tissue. They never spoke of the abortion again ... until the day Lisa saw her first ultrasound – and her first picture of Jen. Ironically, the day Lisa fell apart was the day she and Brian finally got it together. They found the strength to confront a grief as unbearably big as a tiny pair of shoes.

Unwanted abortions are common. Healing is possible.

Maxine was 17 when her mother demanded the abortion and ordered her to keep it a secret. Her mom said it would only hurt for awhile. But decades later, the pain is still there. Millions of women like Maxine suffer silently for years after abortion. Few abortions are freely chosen or fully informed. The heartbreak often surfaces later in the form of clinical depression, anxiety, eating disorders, or substance abuse. Fortunately, women like Maxine are learning they are not alone, and that hope and healing are possible. Learn more on-line.
