

“After the abortion, my life was falling into a million pieces.”

“My husband insisted on the abortion. My doctor didn’t give me any information on fetal development, and I, being so young and foolish, hadn’t asked.”

“Our mom had made [my sister] have an abortion. ... my sister became a completely different person. She started using hard drugs and attempted suicide at least three times ...”

“His family pushed for the abortion — because I was in their home and they had to help care for my children while I was bedridden ... I felt obligated, totally helpless.”

“A part of me died that day.”

If you give Him the broken pieces ... God can make all things new.

“She refuses to be consoled because her children are no more. The Lord says:
Cease your cries of mourning. Wipe the tears from your eyes. The sorrow you have shown shall have its reward. There is hope for your future.” — Jeremiah 31: 16-17

“The Lord is close to the broken-hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” — Psalms 34:18
